Professor Adelman is currently the Theodore and James Pedas Family Professor of Intellectual Property and Technology Law Emeritus at George Washington and Wayne State Universities. Before joining George Washington in 1999, Prior to joining Wayne State, he practiced as a patent attorney in the Detroit area for several years. During that period, he served as lead counsel in numerous patent infringement cases. He has written many law review articles on patent law, the economics of patent law and patent-antitrust law. From 1977 to 1988 he was one of the co-authors and from 1988-2013 the sole author of the continuously updated nine volume treatise on patent law "Patent Law Perspectives". He is a co-author of Cases and Materials on Patent Law, Fifth Edition (West 1998, 2003, 2009, 2014, 2019), Patent Law in a Nutshell, Second Edition (Nutshell Series) (West 2008, 2013) and Global Issues in Patent Law (West 2011). He has testified either by deposition or at trial as an expert in patent law and practice in about 190 cases and he has lectured widely on patent law subjects at conferences across the world. He currently is teaching patent law in Israel at both Bar-Ilan and Hebrew Universities.
