Mary Kate Brennan is a Senior Attorney at Dentons and an Adjunct Professor of Law at Georgetown Law where she teaches a seminar on Fashion Law. Her practice focuses on trademark, false advertising, and copyright litigation for a wide variety of clients, including many in the fashion, beauty, and luxury industries. International anticounterfeiting work is a practice focus for Mary Kate. She protects brands through litigation; coordination with law enforcement agencies on seizures and criminal prosecution; customs facilitation; global trade and supply chain analysis; asset-tracing; and client counseling on critical intellectual property enforcement issues. Mary Kate graduated from the College of the Holy Cross with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and minor in Art History. She earned her J.D. and LL.M. in Fashion Law from Fordham University School of Law.
