
PROF. DR. THOMAS KOCH

Presiding Judge

Federal Court of Justice (Bundesgerichtshof)

Herrenstraße 45 a
76133 Karlsruhe, Germany

(+49) 721 1591121

koch-thomas@bgh.bund.de

Prof. Dr. Thomas Koch is a Presiding Judge at the Federal Court of Justice (Bundesgerichtshof). He is allocated to the 1st Civil Senate with jurisdiction in copyright disputes for more than 15 years. Before he was in the Judicial Service of the State of Rhineland-Palatinate as a Public Prosecutor, Judge at a Regional and a Higher Regional Court, lecturer in the Scientific Service of the Parliament and the Ministry of Justice and - within the framework of a secondment - judicial assistant at the Federal Court of Justice. He gives talks and takes part in panels at conferences on IP matters. He is Honorary Professor at the University of Cologne.