Peter Ruess is a full professor of law with International School of Management in Dortmund, Germany, one of the leading private business schools in Germany. He is also a co-founding partner of ARNOLD RUESS, a boutique IP firm in Duesseldorf, Germany. Prior to that, Professor Ruess has been working with Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, specializing in intellectual property, namely trademark and unfair competition law, IP litigation, product launches and licensing work.

He is highly recommended for his area of expertise in the JUVE handbook on German commercial law firms, the World Trademark Review's worldwide Top 1000 ranking (WTR 1000) and Best Lawyers. The firm's client base ranges from innovative medium-sized companies to DAX 30 / Fortune 500 enterprises.

Professor Ruess pursued his law and supplementary business studies at the Universities of Bayreuth (Germany) and Vienna (Austria). He holds a law degree and a German S.J.D. (Dr. jur.) from Bayreuth University and a Masters Degree in Intellectual Property Law from the George Washington University Law School in Washington DC where he was awarded the Thelma Weaver Memorial Award for outstanding contributions to the academic life of the school.

Aside from being an LL.M. student, Professor Ruess was a legal extern to the Hon. Randall R. Rader at the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Professor Ruess is a frequent speaker at national and international events, having given presentations in various German venues as well as in Austria, Belgium, China, Poland, Lithuania, the Netherlands, the UK, the UAE, Switzerland, Norway, China and (since 2005 annually) in the United States. He has authored or co-authored over 70 publications in legal journals and books. Aside from his law practice, Professor Ruess is active in several charitable organisations. He is Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Diakonie Düsseldorf, the largest welfare organisation in the capital of Northrhine-Westphalia and member of the Johanniterorden (German Order of St John).
