Kai Schmidt-Hern studied law at the Universities of Freiburg and Geneva and obtained a masters degree from University of London (UCL). His doctoral thesis was about sequels under copyright law. After three years as an associate with Linklaters, he joined the IP boutique Lubberger Lehment in Berlin in 2005 where he became a partner in 2008. Kai litigates and counsels clients on trademark, copyright, design and related matters. He has been a lecturer for trademark law and unfair competition at the master's program of Humboldt Universität, Berlin, and regularly acts as a mentor for start-ups.
