MARCUS VON WELSER

Attorney at law

Vossius & Partner

Siebertstr. 3

m.welser@vossius.eu

Dr. Marcus von Welser is a partner in the German IP law firm Vossius & Partner and was admitted to the German Bar in 2002. He advises and represents clients in all areas of intellectual property law, in particular copyright, trademark and competition law. He has extensive experience in litigation as well as contract negotiations.

The long-standing clients he advises are leading companies from various industries, including software, media, electronics, automotive and pharmaceuticals. In 2008 he was awarded the title “Fachanwalt” (certified specialist) in intellectual property law.

Since 2009 Dr. Marcus von Welser lectures on international copyright law, enforcement of rights and anti-counterfeiting at Humboldt-University Berlin. He studied at the universities of Berlin and Warwick (United Kingdom) where he graduated with a Master of Laws (LL.M.). He further obtained a doctorate degree in copyright law from Christian-Albrechts-University in Kiel.

Dr. Marcus von Welser is author of various publications, inter alia a manual on AntiCounterfeiting (published by Wiley-VCH) and a reference work on Copyright Law (published by C.H. Beck).